A Tradition of Service

The seal of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department is a five-pointed star. The top point is a triangle containing a scale of justice. The bottom point is a triangle containing a pair of handcuffs. The left and right points are triangles containing a pair of crossed rifles. The center of the star is a circle containing a grizzly bear. The words "SHERIFF" and "LOS ANGELES COUNTY" are written around the inner edge of the star. A banner at the bottom of the star reads "A Tradition of Service".
